THE AMERICAN JOURNAL

— OF —

OPHTHALMOLOGY,

VOLUME XIV.--1897.

ADOLF ALT, M.D., 1897.
ST. LOUIS, MO.

INDEX TO VOLUME XIV.

ORIGINAL ARTICLES.

PAGE.

A Sase of Quinine Amaurosis; Observations Extending Over Ten Years. By HENRY DICKSON BRUNS, - 1

A Case of Endothelioma of the Dura Mater and Brain. By ADOLF ALT, - - - - - - - 4

Quinine Amblyopia. By S. C. AYRES, - - - 13

Illumination of the Javal Astigmometer. By L. R. CULBERTSON, - - - - - - - - 14

Is There Extra-Crystalline Accommodation? By CH. A. BEARD, - - - - - - - - - 33

Is There a Layer of Pigment Epithelium Cells Between the Choroid and Retina? By ADOLF ALT, 39

A New Ophthalmic Record Book. By L. R. CULBERTSON, - - - - - - - - - 45

A Case of Paralysis of the Superior Oblique in Nephritis. By HOWARD F. HANSELL, - - - - 65

Report of Two Cases of Scopolamine Poisoning. By L. R. CULBERTSON, - - - - - - - 67

Detachment of the Choroid and Retina by Concussion. By S. D. RISLEY, - - - - - - 68

Another Case of Tumor of the Palpebral (Accessory) Lachrymal Gland, Including Some Remarks on Tumors of the Orbital Lachrymal Gland. By ADOLF ALT, - - - - - - - - 70

A Case of Chloroma. By S. C. AYRES and ADOLF ALT, - - - - - - - - - - 78

Papilloid Growth on the Bulbar Conjunctiva. By S. M. BURNETT, - - - - - - - - - 97

Ethmoidal Disease. Its Ophthalmological Symptoms. By T. R. POOLEY, - - - - - - - 100

A New Lamp for Skiascopy. By B. E. FRYER, - 106

Acute Glaucoma Associated With Nasal Polypus. Removal of Polypus and Relief of the Glaucomatous Symptoms. By S. C. Ayres, - - - 108

A Case of Scirrhotic Carcinoma of the Orbital Lachrymal Gland. By J. Ellis Jennings and Adolf Alt, - - - - - - - - - - - 109

Hæmorrhagic Glaucoma. By Adolf Alt, - - 114

The Value of Weak Lenses in Moderate Errors of Refraction. By Albert E. Bulson, Jr., - - 129

A Case of Oculo-Motor Paralysis With Scotoma of the Visual Field. By Geo. E. Bellows, - - 144

Astigmatism. By D. S. Reynolds, - - - - 150

Blepharoplasty. By Ch. H. Beard, - - - 161

Ophthalmological Testimony in a Medico-Legal Case. By L. R. Culbertson, - . - - - 171

Some Observations Upon the Irritating Effects of the Natural Gas Upon Trachoma. By J. J. Kyle, - 173

Skin-Grafting for Malignancy of the Orbit and Entropion. By F. B. Tiffany, - - - - - 150

A Case of Mental Depression Apparently Due to a Graduated Tenotomy, and the Use and Limitation of Prisms. By W. H. Baker, - - - 185

Hints on the Hygiene of Trachoma and the Influence of Climate and Altitude in Its Management. By S. M. Burnett, - - - - - - - 194

Marked Impairment of Central Vision Following Prolonged Use of the Affected Eye. By Samuel Theobald, - - - - - - - - - 197

Antiseptics and Anæsthetics in Ocular Operations. By Jos. E. Willets, - - - - - - - 200

Keratoconus. By J. W. Bullard, - - - - 202

The Technique of Cataract Extraction. By B. E. Fryer, - - - - - - - - - - 210

Credé's Method for the Prevention of Purulent Ophthalmia in Public Institutions. By Lucien Howe, 225

Congenital Nystagmus. By J. E. Colburn, - - 237

Ophthalmia Nodosa. By G. Knapp, - - - 97

Can Castration and Ovariotomy Cause Optic Atrophy? By L. R. Culbertson, - - - - - - 252

Hysteria in Ophthalmology. By W. L. Dayton, - 257

A Senile and Pyramidal Cataract in One Subject. By Geo. F. Suker, - - - - - - - - - 266

A General Consideration on the Etiology and Treatment of Chorioiditis Non-Suppurativa. By W. E. Driver, - - - - - - - - - - 275

On Retarded Closure of the Wound, and Some Rare Accidents and Sequelæ of Cataract Extraction. By C. Barck, - - - - - - - - - 281

Cases of Ophthalmia Neonatorum. By F. T. Reyling, 289

Treatment of Certain Corneal Lesions by Hydraulic Curetting With Sublimate Solutions. By T. H. Pleasants, - - - - - - - - - 294

Syphilitic Amblyopia. Robt. F. Le Mond, - - 301

Some of the Physiological Factors Contributing Toward Making the Eye Emmetropic. By E. S. Heisig, - - - - - - - - - 304, 331

The Ophthalmometer as a Guide in Subjective Optometry. By G. J. Bull, - - - - - - 311

A New Instrument. By Ch. H. Beard, - - - 319

On the Primary Causation of Asthenopia—Influence of Fatigue. By Will Walter, - - - 321

A Plea for More Mild Treatment of the Conjunctiva. By E. W. Ames, - - - - - - - - 337

Subconjunctival Injections of Sodium Bichloride Solution in the Treatment of Iritis, Keratitis, Cyclitis and Choroiditis. By S. L. Ledeetter, - - 342

Subconjunctival Injections of Bichloride in the Deep-Seated Disturbances of Myopia. By Fr. S. Kellogg, - - - - - - - - - - 345

A Case of Optic Nerve Atrophy Treated by Inhalations of Nitrate of Amyl. By Ch. W. Kollock, 347

The Etiology and Treatment of Exophthalmic Goitre. By J. F. Clarke, - - - - - - - - 349

Scopolamine Hydrobromate as a Mydriatic and Cycloplegic. By Wm. S. Fowler, - - - - - 350

The Effect of Intense Flashes of Electric Light Upon the Eye. By DUNBAR ROY, - - - - - 353

Can We Prevent Color-Blindness by Education of the Color-Sense in Infancy? By L. R. CULBERTSON, 361

Operation Intended as Substitute for Extirpation of Lachrymal Gland or Duct. By. J. J. KYLE, - 368

Cases From the Clinic. By HENRY DICRSON BRUNS, 371

CLINICAL MEMORANDA.

Two Cases of Atrophy of the Optic Nerve After Typhus Abdominalis; One Due to a Debilitated Condition, The Other to Meningitis. By ADOLF ALT, - - - - - - - - - - 46

Case of Synchisis Scintillans With Normal Visual Acuity. By ADOL ALT, - - - - - - 47

Lack of Orbital Fat, Congenital Microphthalmus, Persistent Pupillary Membrane and Fœtal Tissue in the Vitreous Body. By ADOLF ALT, - - 48

A Case Illustrating the Efficiency of Subconjunctival Injections. By F. C. TODD, - - - - - 157

A Case in Which Subconjunctival Injections Were Not Efficient. By F. C TODD, - - - - - 158

A Case of Nocturnal Epileptiform Convulsions Relieved by Controlling a Spasm of Accommodation. By F. C. TODD, - - - - - - 159

A Piece of Steel in the Vitreous Body Located by Ophthalmoscopy and Removed With the Electro-Magnet. By F. C. TODD, - - - - - - 159

A Case of Complete Uræmic Amaurosis. By. O. WILKINSON, - - - - - - - - - - 255

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Members of the Medical Profession, - - 15

SOCIETY PROCEEDINGS.

Pan-American Congress at Mexico City, - - - 17
Ophthalmological Society of the United Kingdom, - 24, 86
Western Ophthalmological, Otological, Laryngological and Rhinological Association, - - - 49

OPHTHALMIC DIGEST.

Ophthalmic Digest. By J. Ellis Jennings, . - - 28, 52

MISCELLANY.

Miscellany, - - - - 62, 63, 64, 96, 156, 160

BOOKS AND PAMPHLETS.

Books and Pamphlets, - - - 32, 96, 127, 256, 385